

Vets Newsletter - June 2022

Mollymook Visit

If you wish to participate in this event at Mollymook on July 4, please add your name to the sheet on the vets noticeboard in the downstairs foyer of the clubhouse. This will enable Barry to notify Mollymook re final numbers.

Trevor Bell Memorial Shield

Russell Vale is the venue for the resumption of play for this event on July 11. If you haven't made yourself available for Russell Vale make sure that you contact Gus O'Brien and let him know.

At the IVGA meeting on June 24, it will be decided when the washed out games will be rescheduled for play. These dates will be reported in the July newsletter.

NSWVGA Medals

4BBB Medal

Illawarra qualifiers will be determined from play at Jamberoo on August 25 AND Wollongong on September 12. The aggregate score at both courses will be used to determine the Illawarra representatives for the medal playoff at Nambucca Heads on October 17 and 18.

Kiama vet members need to make their own arrangements for booking tee times at Jamberoo and Wollongong.

Single Medal

For male KGC vet members, the open event on July 12 will be used to determine the single representatives (3) to advance to the Illawarra playoff on September 1 at Port Kembla.

For female KGC vet members, the 3 representatives for the Illawarra playoff will be determined from one of your vets in conjunction competition days. The Illawarra playoff date and Nambucca Heads play off dates are as above.

Seaside and Valley Tournament

Although this event is scheduled for November, Bob Smith has the organisation for the tournament well in hand. A big thank you to the many sponsors who have come forward to support this event which is to be played at Jamberoo (2 days) and Kiama (2 days). Covid has forced the cancellation of this event for the past two years. It is looking good for a successful return of the tournament this year.
