

Vets News - April 2025

KGC Women's Club Championships

This event starts on May 7 with a separate Vets Championship played in conjunction. May the weather be kind and the golf gods be generous. All the best to all participants.

Trevor Bell Memorial Shield

This competition commenced on April 7 at Wollongong. Kiama is running 5th at the moment and has to make up ground in the forthcoming rounds. Wollongong (212) lead from The Links Shell Cove (206). The best score on the day for Kiama was produced by Vic Taylor. The next round is to be played on May 5 at The Grange.

Kiama - Mollymook Challenge

This inter club competition was held at Mollymook with Kiama emerging as winners on the day - 692.75 v 696.75. The Whittaker brothers combined well to post the best score for Kiama. NTP winners were Peter Phippin and Garry Wilson. The return event at Kiama is scheduled for December.

Additional Vets Event at Kiama Golf Club

The time sheet is open for this event to be held on April 29.
The format is a medley 2 person Ambrose.

Some Big Vets Events Coming To The Illawarra

Get your game ready to participate in the events outlined below.

NSWVGA Stroke Play Championships

This event is to be held at The Links Shell Cove, 2026 - 2028.

AVGU National Championships

This prestigious event is to be played in our region in 2027 with Kiama, Port Kembla and The Links Shell Cove being the courses to be used.

Colliding Golf Balls

In the modern era of playing "ready golf," the chances of 2 players hitting shots and the balls colliding is a distinct possibility. The rules applying to this situation depends on where the balls were when the strokes were made.

More on this in the May edition of Vets News. Some of the scenarios and the rules that apply are quite interesting, especially when balls collide on the putting green.
