

Vets News - December 2025

Seaside Tournament

A very successful week of golf with numerous positive remarks about organisation and course presentation. A huge thank you to Jeff Lynch for his diligence and commitment to making this event so successful over the last two years.. David Macallister has taken over as the tournament director for 2026.

NSWVGA Matchplay Championships

Shoalhaven Heads hosted this event which was played early December. Seven KGC vet members participated with mixed success.

Jackie Wheeler from KGC emerged as the winner of Women's Division 3. Congratulations to Jackie on her very worthy achievement. More information is available on the NSWVGA website under results.

Kiama - Mollymook Challenge

Kiama hosted the return visit and had a strong win to maintain the trophy. Tentative dates for 2026 have been set for May 18 at Mollymook and November 30 at Kiama.

Illawarra Week of Golf

This event, to be held in February 2026, is fully booked out . A wait list exists for those hoping for a start. Kiama will host the final day on February 20 with a shotgun start in operation.

A sit down lunch and presentation will follow when play concludes.

Trevor Bell Memorial. Shield

Round 1 of this interclub competition will begin in April. An expression of interest sheet will be posted in February for those who wish to participate. Kiama will host the July round.

Vets Ambrose Events in 2026

March 31, June 30 and September 29 are the 2026 dates on which our extra vets competitions with Ambrose format will be held.

NSWVGA Stroke Play Championships

The Links Shell Cove will host this event for the next three years. The 2026 dates are September 29 - October 2.

