

Vets News - June 2026

Women's Club Championships

Congratulations to Jane Wall on winning the KGC Women's Veteran Championship as well as achieving victory in the KGC Club Championship for 2026. Kim Parsons was the winner of the net event in the Vets Championship and Kelly Light was successful in the net event of the club championship. For a more extensive list of winners for the various divisions, check out the vets notice board in the downstairs foyer and the women's notice board.

Trevor Bell Memorial Shield

After round 2, Kiama shares first place with The Links Shell Cove and Port Kembla with Wollongong only 2 points behind. Gus O'Brien scored a brilliant 43 points to help elevate Kiama to equal top of the leaderboard.. The next round is set down for play at The Grange on June 15.

Kiama - Mollymook Challenge

Mollymook was victorious in round 1 which was played at Mollymook in May. Comley and Hoppe were the best combination for Kiama. Round 2 will be hosted by Kiama and is scheduled for play in late November/early December. More details will be provided closer to the date.

Vets Fees

Vets membership fees ($10) are due, along with club membership by the end of July. Don't forget to get the sticker to show that you are a financial member of KGC Vets (and NSWVGA) and attach it to your club membership card.

A Golf Quote - Author Unknown

Golf gets a lot easier when you realise that nobody has it all figured out.